Libertarian Party of Delaware
Minutes Annual State Convention
25 April 2026

Convention organization

Called to order at 1:11 p.m. Present: 9 vote-eligible registered Libertarians and 1 guest. Simple majority: 5. Two-thirds majority: 6.

Sidd Garrett moved to adopt the proposed agenda. Jess McVay seconded. Passed unanimously.

Jess McVay moved to approved technical amendments. Tim Spong seconded. Approved by majority show of hands.

Old business

Sidd Garrett and Danielle Farley-Grossman were approved for the credentials committee by majority vote. Sidd Garrett and Tim Spong were approved for the bylaws committee by majority vote.

County representation on state board: No changes.

County organization: No action taken.

Delegate(s) to National Convention in Grand Rapids, Mich., in late May: Jess McVay moved, Tim Spong seconded, to appoint Prakash Shahedri as a Delaware delegate to the national convention. Approved without objection. While Delaware is entitled to 6 delegates and 6 alternates this time, no other members have expressed intention to attend. We may deputize LP members from other states present at the convention if nothing is found in our bylaws prohibiting this.

No one present at convention wished to be nominated as a candidate for public office. LPD bylaws permit the board to approve nominations up to the filing deadline.

New business

Dover Days information table sign-up availability would be announced via Discord.

Delaware Legislative Information System information campaign: Several members volunteered to monitor this system for specific subjects.

A 10-minute break was announced to begin at 1:51 p.m., but was extended ad hoc to 2:19 p.m.

Upon reconvening, LPD Chair P. Shahedri introduced the convention's remote speaker, Jim Bovard, who spoke against asset forfeiture to federal and state governments. Mr. Bovard noted that about 70% of the currency in the USA has residue of 1 or more drugs detectable by a drug-sniffing dog.

Adjournment

At 2:47 p.m., Jess McVay moved to adjourn the 2026 convention. Without objection, the meeting was declared adjourned.
